

Jason Hornik is a vice president at Marcus & Millichap, an investment sales firm, where he specializes in multifamily offerings. He is originally from Wisconsin and moved to Denver to study at University of Denver in 2011, and fell in love with everything Colorado has to offer. Jason joined 5280 Air Society because he felt strongly about supporting the mission of National Jewish Health and the Morgridge Academy. He looks forward to his continued involvement with the 5280 Air Society.
